Classic Cars. 1923 Ford Model T: This car had the same owner for the last 40 years. It has not been run in 10 years. A 6-volt electric starter has been added, but the car is in otherwise stock condition. The paint is showing its age with significant cracking. The body and underside appear solid with no rust. The top is quite good. Wooden spoke wheels appear in good condition. 1957 Ford Thunderbird: VIN #D7FH284250. This car is a Sr. first place winner in an AACA show. The restoration was done in the 1980s and is holding up extremely well. It is in absolutely stock configuration. It is offered with the hardtop only. The photos show the absolute attention to detail this car received. The interior is extremely nice and shows very little wear. This 312 C.I. V-8 automatic transmission Thunderbird is done in Starmist blue with Starmist and Dresden interior. The car is beautiful from top to the undercarriage. It was driven last summer.

1956 Ford Thunderbird: VIN #P6FH301775. This Thunderbird was restored 8 or 9 years ago using all Fomoco parts. Great care was given to remain absolutely stock. This car has both hard and soft tops installed. The paint is Coral Sand with a green and white interior, all colors matching the trim tag. The 312 C.I. V-8, automatic transmission. Car was driven last summer. 1955 Chevrolet Bel Air: VIN #VC55L066635. The meticulous restoration of this 2-door hardtop was completed approximately 2 years ago. The build was done with an eye to an absolutely stock standard to include the paint on the underside. The engine number is 0336682T55FB, 265 V-8 with an automatic transmission. The odometer shows 91,566 miles. The paint is done in India Ivory and Navajo tan. The interior is done in beige and green cloth and vinyl, as shown on the trim tag. The car was driven last summer.
