1905 WRIGHT FLYER III REPLICA

Don't miss this rare opportunity to own a piece of American history. It has been said that this Wright Brothers Flyer III is replicated so specific, the Wright Brothers themselves would think they built it. Mark J. Dusenberry dedicated a greater part of his life to manufacturing and perfecting this piece of history with countless pages and documentations of flight logs and blueprints, to create one of the most direct, and fully functional replicas of the Wright Brothers Flyer III. Purchase includes launch rail, FAA aircraft registration, logbooks, blueprints, spare parts, special airworthiness certificate, build journal, photos, and additional paperwork. Serial #1, N3635N

(2) WRIGHT BROTHERS GLIDERS

Much like the Wright Brothers Flyer III, these Wright Brothers Gliders are built to spec. Don't miss out on this chance to preserve a piece of American history.
